Interested in learning The Morris?
We're always looking for new members
Talk to any of us or ring the bagman.

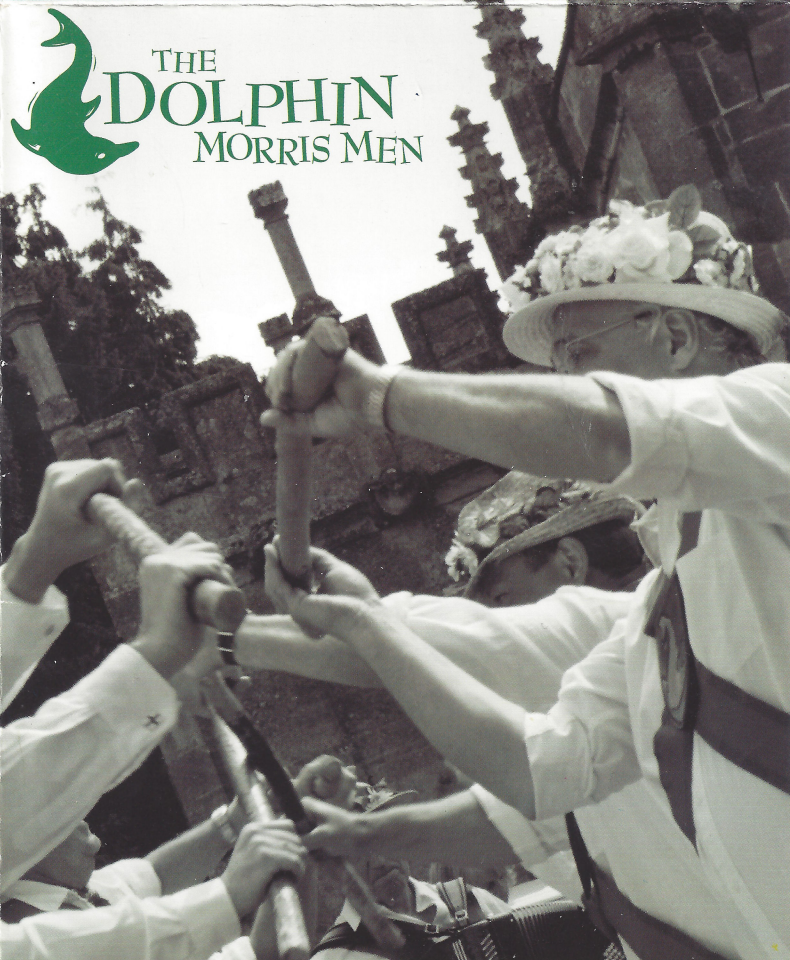

Morris Dancing has been a feature of English life for several hundred years but no one knows for certain how it originated. Some say it has its roots in pagan fertility rites, as a device to chase away the dark spirits of winter and celebrate the re-birth of life in the spring. Others believe that the dances are from overseas and that 'Morris' is a corruption of the word 'Moorish'.
Either way, Dolphin have been dancing for well over 40 years and we have a really good time.
If you fancy a go, talk to any of the dancers and we'd be delighted to show you the ropes.

Why Morris Dancing?

Supporting the local community

Supporting local and regional groups and charities is important to East Midlands Airport. From education and environment initiatives, to arts and employee volunteering activities.

- ✿ We offer an award winning work experience programme
- ✿ Our community fund awarded £62,000 to 101 local projects in 2009/10
- ✿ Our brand new education centre is now open and free to use
